

In recognition of Stroke Awareness Month, Brian Pruitt inspires listeners with his motivational approach to accomplish just about anything with the right perspective, the right approach, and the right principles.

Brian was a sure pick for the 1995 NFL draft before being set back by what seemed to be tragedy. Nevertheless, he began to forge his unique message of hope and encouragement by drawing from his own personal experiences.

Brian graduated from Central Michigan University in 1995 with a degree in communications. A gifted athlete, Brian played football for CMU and in 1994 was named First Team All-American. He has subsequently been inducted into the CMU Sports Hall of Fame and the Saginaw County Hall of Fame.

As an author and successful entrepreneur, as well as television personality, Brian's message is reaching the world and igniting passion in both youth and adults audiences.
