

Popcorn Chef Volunteer Program

What is a Popcorn Chef volunteer?

This is a Covenant HealthCare volunteer who provides popcorn service at the 700 Cooper and Harrison Campus to staff, patients and waiting families.

What duties can a Popcorn Chef volunteer provide?

Volunteers provide this tasty treat throughout the week at our Cooper and Harrison campuses. The Popcorn Chef volunteer provides a valued service to Covenant HealthCare staff, is part of the team and helps the volunteer program gather proceeds to fundraise for hospital needs.

- Setup machine & supplies.
- Pop and sell corn to hospital staff, volunteers, patients & visitors.
- Properly clean up and put away equipment.

Time Commitment:

Volunteers are scheduled for a 2-4 hour shifts (Tuesday or Wednesday) 1-2 times a month. You will be paired with one other volunteer per shift. Scheduling is flexible and the Popcorn Lead will work with you to best suit the needs of the team.
